Independent Auditor's Report

I have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of The Brain Aneurysm Foundation, Inc. (a not-for-profit corporation), which comprises the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2013 and 2012 and the related statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit. I conducted my audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's control. Accordingly, I express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

Nature of Business

The Organization is a Non-Profit Organization established in Boston, Massachusetts in 1994. The Foundation developed from the close relationship between patients and healthcare professionals who identified the need for comprehensive information and support for brain aneurysm patients, their families and the medical community. The mission of the Organization is to provide support networks and educational resources to raise public awareness regarding early detection and treatment of brain aneurysms. The Foundation receives its support from voluntary donations and fundraising events.

Financial Statement Presentation

The Organization accounts for contributions received and presents its financial statements in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification No. 958 (ASC 958), Not-for-Profit Entities. In accordance with ASC 958, contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted or permanently restricted depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Additionally, the Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets. At December 31, 2013 and 2012, the Organization had no permanently restricted net assets.

Method of Accounting

The financial statements of the Organization have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and accordingly reflect all significant receivables, payables and other liabilities.

The accounts of the Organization are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. Under fund accounting, resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purpose. Separate accounts are maintained for each fund; however, in the accompanying financial statements, funds have been combined and presented for the Organization as a whole in accordance with Accounting Standards for Not-For-Profit Entities – Presentation of Financial Statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Organization considers as "cash equivalents" all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity date of three months or less.

Investments

The Organization reflects investments at fair value in the statement of financial position. Interest, dividends, and gains and losses on investments are reflected in the Statements of Activities as increases and decreases in unrestricted net assets unless their use is temporarily or permanently restricted by explicit donor stipulations or by law. Gains and investment income that are limited to specific uses by donor-imposed restrictions are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets if the restrictions are met in the same year in which the gains and income are recognized.

Contributions and Unconditional Promises to Give

The Organization reports contributions received in accordance with accounting standards Not-For-Profit Entities – Receivables. Under this accounting standard, contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted or permanently restricted support depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions.

Contributions are recognized when the donor makes a promise to give to the Organization that is, in substance, unconditional. Contributions that are restricted by the donor are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets if the restrictions expire in the year in which the contributions are recognized. All other donor-restricted contributions are reported as increases in temporarily-or permanently-restricted net assets, depending on the nature of the restrictions. When a restriction is met, temporarily-restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets.

The Organization uses the allowance method to determine uncollectible promises to give. The allowance is based on prior years' experience and management's analysis of specific promises made.

Advertising Costs

The Organization's policy is to charge advertising costs to expense as incurred.

Property and Equipment

Property and Equipment are recorded at cost. Equipment is capitalized if it has a cost of $1,000 or more and a useful life when acquired of more than 1 year. Depreciation is provided on a straight-line basis over the estimated lives of the assets. Maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred while major additions and improvements are capitalized. The estimated useful life of the assets is as follows:

Software
Furniture and Equipment

3 years 5-7 years

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Organization is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, no provision for federal or state income tax has been made.

Additionally, the Organization qualifies for charitable contribution deductions under Section 170(b)(1)(A) and has been classified as an organization other than a private foundation under Section 509(a)(2).

The Organization evaluates all significant tax positions as required by generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. As of August 31, 2013, the Organization does not believe that it has taken any tax positions that would require the recording of any tax liabilities, nor does it believe that there are any unrealized tax benefits that would either increase or decrease within the next twelve months. The Organization's tax returns are subject to examination by the appropriate taxing jurisdictions. As of December 31, 2013, the Organization's federal and state returns are open for the last three years.

Donated Services

Donated services are recognized as contributions in accordance with ASC 958 if the services (a) create or enhance non-financial assets, or (b) require specialized skills, are performed by people with those skills, and would otherwise be purchased by the Organization. No amounts have been reflected in the financial statements for donated services since services received do not meet the aforementioned criteria; however, a number of volunteers have donated time to the Organization's activities.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Organization maintains its cash balances at a financial institution located in Massachusetts. The balances are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000. The Organization also maintains certain money funds at a brokerage firm that is insured by Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC).

At various times during the year, the Organization's cash in bank accounts exceed the federal insured limits of $250,000. On December 31, 2013 the Organization had uninsured balances of $63,554.

Functional Allocation of Expense

The cost of providing the various program and supporting services has been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited.

Compensated Absences

Employees of the Organization are entitled to paid vacations, sick days and other time off depending on job classification, length of service and other factors. The Organization's policy is to recognize the costs of compensated vacation and sick time when paid to employees.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Restrictions on Assets

Temporarily-Restricted Net Assets

Temporarily-restricted net assets at December 31, 2013 and 2012 are restricted for future programs and are expected to be released from restriction within one year.

Permanently-Restricted Net Assets

Permanently-restricted net assets are used to account for contributions received from donors who direct that the principle be retained and only the income derived there from be used to support the general operations of the Organization.

Release of Restrictions

When a restriction expires or is fulfilled, temporarily restricted assets are reclassified to unrestricted net asset.

NOTE 2 – INVESTMENTS

The Organization maintains certain investment accounts. The future proceeds from these accounts are intended to support the operations of the Organization. The Organization investment objective is the preservation of capital and moderate growth.

Investments, stated at fair value, consist of mutual funds and a market etf fund. The fair value of investments has been determined by quoted market values in active markets. The mutual funds in which the Organization invests are reported at the net asset value made publicly available daily, at which redemptions and investments take place for the following day.

There are no investment fees paid directly to the investment advisor. Fees are included in the mutual funds expense ratio.
